

FRIDAY 19TH FEBRUARY

Friday	10.00	Registration	Arts Building Foyer
Friday	10.45	Conference Welcome	Manda Forster & Jill Campbell
Session 1	11.00	Life and Death
Friday	11.05	Diana Briscoe	The archive of Anglo Saxon stamps and how it can be used to give context to a specific cemetery site	UCL
Friday	11.20	Sira M Dooley Fairchild	Material Beliefs: antiquarian narratives of Anglo Saxon Christianization	Durham University
Friday	11.35	David Klinge	The Use of Skeletal Evidence to Understand the Transition from Roman to early Anglo-Saxon Cambridgeshire	University of Cambridge
Friday	11.50	Tracy Collins	Medieval Nunneries in the Irish Archaeological Record	University College Cork
Friday	12.05	Dawn Hadley	Session Discussion
	12.15-13.15	LUNCH
Session 2	13.15	Careers Question Time
Friday	13.20	Jill Campbell	Who wants to be a medievalist? Careers Question Time
	14.45	COFFEE
Session 3	15.10	The Material World
Friday	15.15	Ben Jervis	Dealing with waste in a medieval town, a ceramic perspective	Southampton University
Friday	15.30	Jocelyn Baker	Colour and composition of 6 th century copper-alloy jewellery from Castledyke South, Barton-on-Humber, North Lincolnshire	Durham University
Friday	15.45	Etel Colic	Medieval Pottery in Iceland	University of Iceland
Friday	16.00	Astrid Daxböck	The role of weapons in early Icelandic society (ca. 870-1000AD)	University of Iceland
Friday	16.15	Imogen Wood	Hidden landscapes: the social significance of clay sourcing for pottery production in early medieval Cornwall	University of Exeter
Friday	16.30	Anthea Harris	Session Discussion
Friday	18.00	BUFFET
Friday	19.30	Martin Carver	Keynote Lecture
Friday	20.30	WINE RECEPTION		