

SOCIETY FOR MEDIEVAL ARCHAEOLOGY STUDENT COLLOQUIUM 2011

INFORMATION

PROGRAMME

There will be papers throughout the day on Friday (28th), with a reception and poster session in the evening. On Saturday (29th) there will be papers in the morning followed by an optional fieldtrip to local medieval sites, culminating in attendance at the Annual Brixworth lecture. On Sunday (30th) there will be papers through the day before the conference closes at 4.00pm.

Further details including speakers, titles and abstracts can be found in the attached programme.

CONFERENCE COSTS

Attendance at the Conference is free for all student members of the Society. If you are not a student member then you are liable to pay the registration fee of £20. Please note that the student fee to join the society is only £20. Details of how to join can be found on the Society's webpage (<http://www.medievalarchaeology.org/>).

FIELD TRIP

On the Afternoon of the Saturday (30th) an optional fieldtrip will visit local medieval sites. The trip will culminate at Brixworth where Lesley Webster (Former Senior Curator of Anglo-Saxon Antiquities at the British Museum) will deliver the Annual the Brixworth Lecture: Wall-paintings to Altar Cloths; furnishing the Anglo-Saxon Church.

The cost will be £10. The trip will leave promptly after lunch and return in the evening (c.8.00pm).

CATERING

Lunches, tea and coffee are all included in the costs of the conference.

ACCOMMODATION

There is a youth hostel:
<http://www.yha.org.uk>

For those on a larger budget there are several hotels close to the conference venue:

www.bestwestern.co.uk
www.theroyalcambridgehotel.co.uk
www.doubletreebyhilton.co.uk

TRAVEL

Cambridge is readily accessible via Rail and coach. The railway station is about 20 minutes walk from the department whilst the bus station is about 10 mins. Driving is possible but parking is often difficult in the centre of the town and there is no on-site parking provided.

The conference will be hosted at the McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research, Cambridge (marked 10 on the map). The department is on the Downing Site in the centre of Cambridge. Maps of the town, including the Downing Site can be found online (<http://www.cam.ac.uk/map>) and are reproduced below.

