

SOCIETY FOR MEDIEVAL ARCHAEOLOGY STUDENT COLLOQUIUM

Brussels, Nov.3rd-5th 2016

Call for Papers

We are very pleased to announce that we are now accepting paper and poster abstracts for the SMA Student Colloquium to be held in Brussels, Belgium, on 3rd-5th November 2016.

This event aims to provide a platform for postgraduates and early career professionals to present and discuss their current research.

We welcome papers and posters from across the medieval period (5th-16th centuries), and from all geographical areas. Papers and posters with no direct link to archaeology, but with a broader medieval significance will also be considered.

Topics that will be tackled include:

- Cross-sea interactions and connections
- The archaeology of medieval landscapes
- New methods and approaches in medieval archaeology
- Urban fabric and identity
- Commemoration in the Middle Ages
- Artefacts, crafts and society

Abstracts of maximum 150 words should be sent to:

medieval.archaeology@googlemail.com

Please include 'Student Colloquium Abstract' in the subject line. Please add up to 5 keywords with paper abstracts. Papers will be 20 minutes in length, and there will be room for discussion at the end of each paper session.

DEADLINE FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSION: Friday 9th September 2016

We will notify you if your abstract has been successful within two weeks from the deadline.

For more information: please contact: medieval.archaeology@googlemail.com, or see our website <http://www.medievalarchaeology.co.uk/>

More details of the programme for the colloquium (including keynote lectures and excursion to Bruges and the medieval fishing village 'Walraversijde'), and for registration will follow soon!

Registration fee:

Registration is free for members of the Society, and £20 for non members (whether students or not). However, we would like to encourage membership with the Society as the student rate will be the same. For more information on how to join, please visit:
